

STIFTUNG ELBPILHARMONIE HAMBURG

“Be a part of Hamburg’s music history in the making.”

In the best tradition of civic commitment, the Stiftung Elbphilharmonie Hamburg (Elbphilharmonie Hamburg Foundation) was founded under private law in October 2005 at the initiative of banks M.M.Warburg & CO and HSH Nordbank in order to promote the realization of one of the most exciting projects of the century - the Elbphilharmonie Hamburg. Ever since, the Stiftung Elbphilharmonie supports the Elbphilharmonie as a long-term partner by funding numerous projects and accompanying its further development. The goal of the Stiftung Elbphilharmonie Hamburg is to raise short-term and long-term donations from citizens. Thanks to these generous donations, a major contribution has already been made to achieving funding for the building. However, a leading world concert house requires not only outstanding halls and excellent acoustics, but also a highly varied concert programme with attractive and innovative events, professional music education for visitors of every age and high-quality, state of the art equipment. Thus, a central concern of the Stiftung Elbphilharmonie Hamburg is not only to raise short-term donations, but to attract long-term donations to the foundation’s capital, in order to support this leading concert hall which opened in January 2017.

In order to serve its purpose, the Stiftung Elbphilharmonie Hamburg initiates and coordinates promotional and fund-raising activities for the Elbphilharmonie Hamburg. As part of its own advertising campaigns, the foundation appeals to citizens and corporations alike, encouraging them to support this project as part of Hamburg’s musical future. The wealth of opportunities available for support ranges from letters appealing for short- and long-term donations through to patronage of individual sections of the building complex.
